NOTIFICATION

Whereas, for every course (under-graduate, post-graduate, diploma and certificate) University has framed separate Directions prescribing the duration of the course, the course structure, maximum and minimum (passing) marks, the division of maximum marks into external and internal components and whether they should constitute separate or composite passing heads, number of theory papers and practicals in each year/semester, exemption in subject on failure, ATKT rules, number of credits per subject, the grade points, on the basis of the recommendations of the Boards of Studies of the University :

AND

Whereas, the examinations for each course are being conducted by the University in terms of the respective Directions of the courses and the mark sheets of the students also are prepared according to these Directions;

AND

Whereas, the University has issued Direction No. 13 of 2017 prescribing certain uniform conditions for conduct of the under-graduate and post-graduate examinations based on credit based/ choice based credit systems, in all faculties of the University;

AND

Whereas, for implementation of the Direction No. 13 of 2017 suitable amendments in the existing Directions governing the under-graduate, post-graduate and diploma courses of the University was required to be undertaken for the smooth conduct of examinations and preparation of mark sheets but this process could not be completed for all the courses except the courses in Humanities faculty for various reasons,

Now, therefore, it is clarified that all the courses whose relevant Directions/Ordinances have not been amended in terms of the provisions of Direction No. 13 of 2017 shall continue to be governed by their respective existing Directions and therefore conduct of their examinations and preparation of mark sheets shall be as per those Directions and in all cases where applicable Directions/Ordinances have been amended or replaced by new Directions incorporating the provisions of Direction No. 13 of 2017 the conduct of examinations and preparation of mark sheets shall be as per the amended Ordinances/Directions.
