Rashtrasant Tukdoji Maharaj Nagpur University, Nagpur

Organises

One Day National Seminar on “Commercial Laws: Contemporary Challenges in India”
On
10th March 2018

ABOUT THE DEPARTMENT:

Post Graduate Teaching Department of Law was established in the year 1963 under the Third Five Year Plan on the basis of the recommendations of UGC. The Department was established to promote advanced training in law and research. Our University adopted a Ph.D. Ordinance which permitted registration of students for the Ph.D. Programme in Law. It became effective from the academic session 1973-74. At present, institutionalized instructions are offered in SEVEN specializations in the department which include:

- ♣ Group A - International Law
- ♣ Group B - Constitutional Law and Administrative Law
- ♣ Group C - Intellectual Property Laws
- ♣ Group D - Business Law
- ♣ Group E - Environment and Legal Order
- ♣ Group F - Labour, Capital and Law
- ♣ Group G - Criminal Law

ABOUT THE SEMINAR:

The Commercial Laws in India are inherently complex and subject to constant refinement through new legislations, rules and regulations and court decisions. The continuous changing dynamics of the market and economy creates various challenges for the commercial laws to be at par with the contemporary scenario. Further the implementation of commercial laws needs in-depth understanding of its procedures and practices. Today, on one hand the Commercial Laws are creating its impact on every filed of trade and commerce whereas on the other it gets affected by technologies, globalisation, environment etc. Thus, there is an utmost need to understand the challenges faced by the stakeholders in effective utilization of these laws. Thus the Post Graduate Teaching Department of Law RTM Nagpur University Organises National Seminar On “Commercial Laws: Contemporary Challenges in India” so as to have an intellectual deliberation on the challenges prevalent in the commercial laws in India.
